World Book Day 2024

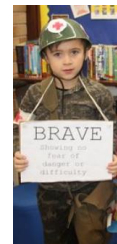

Dear Parents/ Carers,

At Rakegate, we are celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 7th March 2024 this year. At school, we take every opportunity to celebrate reading and share our love for reading. During this week, we have lots of activities and events planned for both parents and children to join in with.

'Dress as a Word'

For World Book Day, children are invited to choose a word and come into school dressed as that word. There are some ideas below to help you get creative! Please do not feel like you need to go to any expense with your costumes – many of the ideas can be created using items from home.

Prizes will be on offer for the best dressed and most creative and imaginative ideas on the day! There will be lots of other activities and story sharing organised by your child's class teacher on that day to celebrate and promote reading for pleasure too.

Reading Café

During the week, we are inviting parents into school to our 'Reading Café'. After dropping your child(ren) at school, join us from 9:00am -9:45am in the school hall for a hot drink, biscuit, chat and to find out more about 'reading for pleasure'. Following this, you will be able to visit our school library and enjoy reading a story with your child. The dates for the Reading Cafés are as follows:

EYFS - Friday 8th March

Year1/2/3 - Tuesday 5th March

Year 4/5/6 - Wednesday 6th March

Children will also be bringing home with them a £1 book token to purchase a book. Specially produced books are available to purchase to celebrate World Book Day (see image).

If you require any further information about these events, do not hesitate to contact school.

Yours sincerely,

Miss M. Causer
English Lead
