The curriculum is all the planned activities that we organise in order to promote learning and personal growth and development. It includes not only the formal requirements of the National Curriculum, but also the wider opportunities that the school organises in order to enrich the experience of the children. It also includes the 'hidden curriculum', or what the children learn from the way they are treated and expected to behave as reflected in our values..

We aim to teach children how to grow into positive, responsible people, who can work and co-operate with others while developing knowledge and skills, so that they achieve their true potential.

We aim to achieve this by:

- providing opportunities for children's personal development.
- preparing children for secondary school.
- ensuring pupils are fully prepared for life in modern Britain.
- upholding and teaching pupils about British Values
- offering a wide range of quality extra-curricular opportunities, off-site visits and workshops in school for personal development.
- working with our families to create an aspirational school community in which everyone is valued and successes are celebrated.

2. Legislation and guidance

This policy reflects the requirements of the National Curriculum programmes of study, which all maintained schools in England must teach.

It also reflects requirements for inclusion and equality as set out in the Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice 2014 and Equality Act 2010, and refers to curriculum-related expectations of governing boards set out in the Department for Education's Governance Handbook.

In addition, this policy acknowledges the requirements for promoting the learning and development of children set out in the Early Years Foundation Stage \(EYFS\) statutory framework.

3. Roles and responsibilities

3.3 Other staff

Other staff will ensure that the school curriculum is implemented in accordance with this policy.

Our Curriculum Teams:

The above curriculum teams will work together on a termly basis to establish connections between subjects, exploit cross-curricular opportunities and support each other in the development and implementation of each subject within the team.

4. Organisation and planning

Rakegate Primary School's curriculum meets the statutory requirements of the National Curriculum and it provides experiences and opportunities which enhance the learning and developmental needs of the children at our school. A blocked curriculum approach has been implemented at the school to ensure coverage and progression in a number of curriculum areas. Our curriculum timetabling nurtures each child's curiosity and interests and it enables the achievement of depth in knowledge and skills. Opportunities for pupil voice are planned at the beginning of each new topic and this is used to inform teaching and learning for each topic to ensure relevance.

Our curriculum is well planned and adapted to meet the needs of our pupils and to ensure it provides children with memorable experiences and opportunities so that our children learn and develop a range of transferable skills.

Rakegate Primary School makes full use of the skills of a wide range of professionals: The Wolverhampton Music School provides opportunities for children to learn to play tuned instruments, pupils are taught to swim by professionals at a local secondary school and the school holds the 'Active Schools Gold Award' for competitive sports. Our Community Sport and Health Officer promotes health and well-being across the school.

For extra-curricular activities, a varied timetable is offered by the school that supports our core values. As well as the core curriculum offer, our extra-curricular clubs develop specialist skills such as karate. Our off-site visits and visitors to school support our mission to raise aspirations, encourage a sense of self confidence and provide a purpose and relevance for learning.

Rakegate Primary School takes pride in providing an environment that is suitable and accessible to all its pupils. Children at all levels are supported and challenged within lessons in order to achieve their full potential.

Our subject leaders play an important part in the success of the curriculum by leading a regular programme of monitoring, evaluation and review and the celebration of good practice contributes to the ongoing commitment to evolve and improve further. All subject leaders are given training and the opportunity to keep developing their own subject knowledge, skills and understanding, so they can support curriculum development and their colleagues throughout the school.

Rakegate's curriculum design ensures that the needs of all our children can be met through excellent teaching and learning, planned and sequenced quality interventions (where appropriate) and resources that are carefully selected to promote the intent of the curriculum all of which has a positive impact on children's outcomes.

Enjoyment of the curriculum promotes achievement, confidence and good behaviour. Children feel safe to try new things. High quality visits and visitors to the school enhance the curriculum and provide opportunities for writing for a purpose.

Children have opportunities to share their learning with each other, their parents and carers through: 'curriculum workshops', 'family mornings', key stage performances/assemblies and school competitions. By providing these opportunities at Rakegate it helps instill independence and motivate learners, which helps to prepare our children for secondary education and life in modern Britain.

See our EYFS policy for information on how our early years curriculum is delivered.

5. Inclusion

Teachers set high expectations for all pupils. They will use appropriate assessment to set ambitious targets and plan challenging work for all groups, including:

- More able pupils
- Pupils with low prior attainment
- Pupils from disadvantaged backgrounds
- Pupils with SEND
- Pupils with English as an additional language (EAL)

Teachers will plan lessons so that pupils with SEN and/or disabilities can study every National Curriculum subject, wherever possible, and ensure that there are no barriers to every pupil achieving.

Teachers will also take account of the needs of pupils whose first language is not English. Lessons will be planned so that teaching opportunities help pupils to develop their English, and to support pupils to take part in all subjects.

Further information can be found in our statement of equality information and objectives, and in our SEND policy and information report.

6. Monitoring arrangements

Governors monitor coverage of National Curriculum subjects and compliance with other statutory requirements through:

- school visits: learning walks
- meetings with the school council
- link governors meet with subject leads
- subject leaders compile and share reports in governor curriculum meetings

SLT, the curriculum leader and subject leaders monitor the way their subject is taught throughout the school by:

- planning scrutinies
- learning walks/observations
- pupil voice
- book scrutinies

Subject leaders also have responsibility for monitoring the way in which resources are stored and managed.

This policy will be reviewed every year by the curriculum leader. At every review, the policy will be shared with the full governing board.
