A message from the Headteacher:

Welcome back to the Autumn Term and the start of another busy year. We have changed the reading rewards for this year. All children who read at home at least 3 times a week will get a stamp in their diary and will be given a raffle ticket which will be put into a class box. At the end of each half term, one ticket will be drawn from each class and that child will win a book of their choice. The more weeks they read at least 3 times, the more tickets they will have and a better chance they have of winning. As ever, we appreciate your support with helping your children read a variety of books at home

Dates for your diary:
